TEA

INHIBITS DRINKING

In the "Daily Post" of September 2 appears a leading article, evidently from an analytical expert, showing that after 15 minutes "draw" Indian Tea only 17.93 points, while from China comes only 17.20 points. This means that the tea from China is of a much higher quality than the tea from India. It is a pity that the tea from China is not more generally known and used. It is a pity that the tea from China

THE MOORS.

SUPPOSED MASSACRE OF BRITISH

SUBJECTS.

Yesterday's telegrams afford every reason to fear that the British Minister and his family and other British subjects have been slaughtered in Morocco, during an outbreak of popular fury.

The circumstances of this sad affair closely resemble the massacre of the British Minister, Sir Louis Cavagnari, and fifty other British subjects at Casablanca Sept. 3rd 1879. What is most surprising in the present tragedy is that Sir Evan Smith, knowing the character of the Moors in general and especially of the people of Fez, the capital, should have taken with him his wife, his daughter and an English lady who was governess to the latter. The Sultan of Morocco is a rude barbarian, and it is humiliating to see in the recent number of the "Illustrated London News" a picture of the British Ambassador and his secretaries with their hats off, standing outside of the city gate of Fez, to receive Muley Hassan as he is seen issuing from the gate on horseback.

This unbecoming scene is a picture of the British Ambassador and his
